

2008 ANNUAL REPORT

Cutting the ribbon on the new Family Services Center in Prince William County for Action in Community Through Service (ACTS)

Cutting the ribbon at the dedication of renovated facilities for The Good Shepherd Alliance's Center of Hope that includes "Hope's Treasures" thrift store in Ashburn.

2008 Annual Report: Builder Captains Saved Charities More Than $1 Million

Through donations in time, materials, expertise and supervision of both Shelter and Shelter Care projects, HomeAid Northern Virginia Builder Captains saved community organizations more than $1,000,000 – money these organizations can put toward the many programs they offer to serve the more than 4,000 homeless in Northern Virginia.

Shelter Projects

Winchester Homes and ACTS – Winchester Homes was HomeAid Builder Captain for construction of a 7,500-square-foot Family Services Center in Prince William County operated by ACTS (Action in Community Through Service).

"The Family Service Center is working out great," said Frances Harris, Executive Director of ACTS, updating the impact of the project. "We have seen a 30 percent increase in emergency assistance and I don't know what we would have done without the new center."

Donations by Winchester and its suppliers of time, supervision and materials – including a $50,000 donation by the Weyerhaeuser Company in lumber and materials – saved ACTS more than $320,000.

Toll Brothers and The Good Shepherd Alliance – HomeAid Builder Captain Toll Brothers renovated facilities that are used to house Good Shepherd Alliance's (GSA) administrative staff, the family service staff, the community outreach center, volunteers and "Hope's Treasures" thrift store in Ashburn.

"We have had over 8,100 people come and shop at Hope's Treasures since we opened the store on July 19, 2008," said Joyce Trickett, Chair of the GSA Board.

Through reduced costs and donations of time, money and materials by Toll Brothers and more than 75 supplier partners, GSA saved over $400,000 in construction expenditures. HomeAid Northern Virginia also presented GSA with a check for $10,000.

Bozzuto Homes and Community Lodgings – HomeAid Builder Captain Bozzuto Homes and more than 20 of its trade partners constructed an addition to an existing Learning Center for Community Lodgings in Alexandria and then went beyond the original scope of the project, adding new gutters to the entire building, a new fenced-in HVAC system and renovating the older learning center space.

HomeAid Northern Virginia donated $10,000 to Community Lodgings to furnish the space with new desks and furniture for the children and families who will use the wing daily. Donations by Bozzuto and its trade partners saved Community Lodgings about $240,000.

Shelter Care Projects

Mike Garcia Construction and ACTS – Mike Garcia Construction and its suppliers renovated three homes and three apartments for ACTS in Prince William County.

All units were quickly occupied, the larger unit by a family of five experiencing domestic violence issues and the two one bed room units by homeless single moms, each with one child. One mom is the third generation of her family to experience long term homelessness, according to an update by Rhonda Carr, Program Director, ACTS Transitional Living Program. Mike Garcia Construction and its partners saved ACTS about $25,000 in labor and supply costs.

CarrHomes and Community Lodgings – In its fifth HomeAid Northern Virginia project, CarrHomes renovated a three bedroom apartment for Community Lodgings in Alexandria. The result was a beautiful ‘new’ space that will be home to a homeless mother and her four children as they undergo Community Lodging’s two-year transitional housing program. The total market value of the project was more than $11,500 and it was done at no cost to Community Lodgings.

Miller & Smith and Shelter House – HomeAid Builder Captain Miller & Smith renovated a newly-purchased townhome for Shelter House that became the new home for a single mother with four children in Centreville.

“The original family is still in the unit,” said Joe Meyer, Deputy Director of Shelter House, Inc., updating the project. “They are excelling in their journey of becoming self sufficient.” The entire project cost of $25,000 was covered by Miller & Smith and their subcontractors.

New Century Homes and Gabriel Homes – What started out as a small repair job on a townhome for Gabriel Homes by HomeAid Builder Captain New Century Homes, wound up as a total renovation to the whole unit. The restoration saved Gabriel Homes about $25,000.

Richmond American and NOVACO – HomeAid Builder Captain Richmond American and its supplier partners restored a four bedroom condominium in Annandale for the Northern Virginia Coalition (NOVACO) that became the home for a mother and three children. The HomeAid Shelter Care Project saved NOVACO about $40,000 in labor, supplies and expertise.

Your Company Can Become a Hero to the Homeless

Companies looking for ways to match the talent and generosity of their staff with the needs of the community can do so through the HomeAid Northern Virginia Heroes program – a volunteer program so companies can help local shelters by coordinating light maintenance work, landscaping and other activities.

For example, in 2008 employees of Provident Bank provided landscaping and general clean-up activities at two HomeAid projects.

For more information on HomeAid Heroes, contact HomeAid at (571) 283-6320 or homeaidnova@nvbia.com.

News Briefs for 2008

Gala Raises Over $200,000: More than 400 homebuilders, trade partners and friends of the homebuilding industry, through a variety of contributions, the auction sales and a Paddle Challenge matching donation from Doug and Ann Smith, raised more than $200,000 for HomeAid Northern Virginia at the 7th Annual Building Hope Gala and Auction presented by Provident Bank.

Recognition: Winchester Homes, Builder Captain for the ACTS Family Shelter Center, and HomeAid Northern Virginia received a commendation resolution by a unanimous vote of the Prince William County, Virginia, Board of Supervisors at a September meeting.

Maggie Johnston, former Director of HomeAid Northern Virginia, received the 2008 Virginia Peters Nonprofit Friend Award from the Housing Association of Nonprofit Developers (HAND).

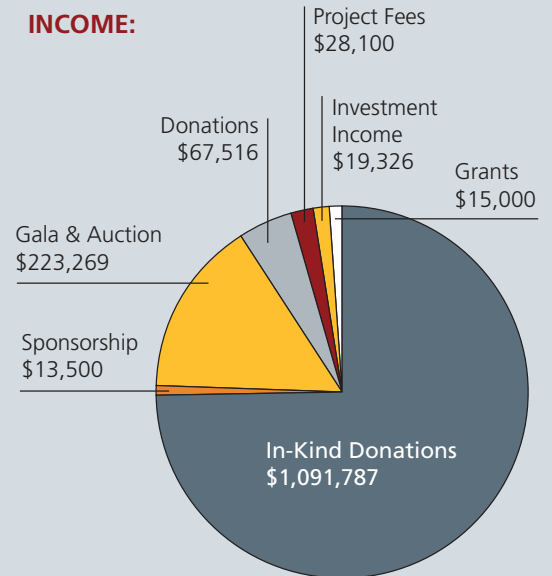

Christy Eaton Named Executive Director: Christy Eaton, with more than 16 years in fundraising and marketing, joined HomeAid Northern Virginia as its new Executive Director in 2008.
