2014 HomeAid Impact

People helped:

Women Giving Back gave new hope to women in need.

We've come a long way.

Thank you.

©2015 All rights reserved.

In 2014, HomeAid Northern Virginia—along with seven builder captains and their trade partners—gave 1,300 formerly homeless individuals what matters most: a home, a second chance, and a reason to hope.

Together, we renovated, upgraded, and expanded eight properties—with the costs for four of them 100 percent donated.

All serve the area's homeless, including families, single adults with mental disabilities, survivors of domestic violence, and teens.

second chances are a reason for hope

Through Women Giving Back, we gave 4,000 women and children new confidence with 66,600 articles of free clothing and accessories. We were honored with five prestigious awards, one of which came with a $25,000 prize. We forged new alliances with new partners, and gratefully accepted a $100,000 gift from a local developer. We helped create new memories and opportunities for our youngest citizens, whether it was throwing out the first pitch at a baseball game or starting school with a brand new backpack. And most importantly, we did it together. Thank you.

“The building industry works hard all year, every year, building homes for people who can pretty much take care of themselves. What we don’t have as easily is the opportunity to help those who don’t have as much. HomeAid gives us that chance. And once you’ve worked with HomeAid, and you see how grateful people are to receive what you’re uniquely able to give them, you’ll keep doing it year after year. It’s a reward for the soul and the spirit. It gets to the point that it almost feels a little selfish ... you get such a feeling from these projects that you want to do it again and again.”

—Jerry Berman,
President, M/I Homes

2014 Builder Captains and Trade Partners

By investing nearly $250,000 into eight properties, HomeAid and its partners saved shelters a historical year-end high of 92 percent in construction costs.

The result? More than $220,000 in funding that service providers redirected to programs that directly benefit our region’s homeless men, women, and children.

Helping Service Providers Change Lives

The projects completed for the following service providers immediately gave new hope and a second chance to 1,300 individuals, but over the next 10 years, that number will jump to an astounding 13,000.

Sometimes, giving someone a second chance means trying something for the first time.

Thank you to David Flanagan, president of Elm Street Development, for the $100,000 donation! "It's impossible to put into words how many people will be directly helped through this gift," said Fundraising Chairman John DeZinno in gratitude, "and how many lives will be changed over the long-term."

In 2014, HomeAid Northern Virginia received a $70,000 grant from the Meyer Foundation to support fundraising and business planning over the next two years.

Thank you to our first-time Builder Captains, Lennar Homes and Arcadia Homes!

HomeAid's 4th Annual Night at the Ballpark

While bringing kids to the ballpark isn't anything new for HomeAid, it was a first-time experience for many of the kids and parents who attended HomeAid's Fourth Annual Night at the Ballpark in August. More than 300 kids and adults—the best-attended night at the ballpark that HomeAid has hosted to date—made happy memories at the game. The event was mentioned on NBC-4's nightly broadcast.

Christa, who threw out the first pitch, meets Potomac Nationals Coach Sean McCauley.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

"HomeAid projects are a godsend. It means we don't have to spend our funding on a renovation—we can put those precious funds toward programs and services for our residents. The wear and tear on our facility is significant, and while we can take care of a lot of basic maintenance and repairs ourselves, we just can't budget for major projects."

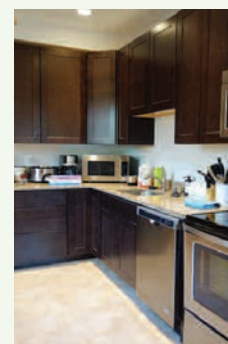

—Judith Dittman, executive director, Alternative House

ALTERNATIVE HOUSE

After 13 years of use by up to eight teens at a time, the bathrooms at Alternative House needed upgrades! A $11,500 investment, the teens have updated bathrooms and Alternative House has more funding for resident services.

COMMUNITY RESIDENCES

Seven adults living in a long-term assisted living facility now have the opportunity to improve their daily living skills in this updated kitchen.

Building Community, Together

The Annual Builders & Friends BBQ is one of our best ways of saying thank you, and in 2014, we recognized more than 200 homebuilders and trade partners at the fifth annual event. Attendees raised more than $24,000 to help us continue our mission.

Having fun is equally important, and at Women Giving Back's (WGB) Cinco de Mayo event, more than 200 guests enjoyed a night of dancing and dining under a big tent. We raised more than $70,000—a 62 percent increase over 2013—and the guest list doubled.

For our service provider partners, we hosted "Transformational Housing: Out of Shelter, Getting and Keeping a Home," a forum attended by more than 60 representatives from 30 Northern Virginia non-profit and public sector housing organizations.

Three successful golf tournaments, a 5K race, and a cornhole challenge brought in $50,500 for HomeAid Northern Virginia in 2014.

THANK YOU Brookfield Residential, NVBIA, National Potomac Yacht Club, Pulte Group and Van Metre Companies!

Put Your Talents, Skills & Resources to Use!

There are many creative ways to support HomeAid Northern Virginia, including:

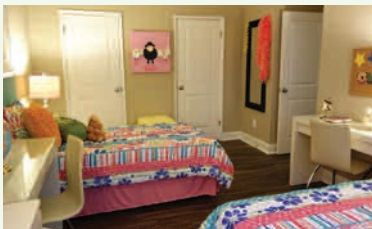

- volunteer support and service;
- gifts of stocks and mutual funds;
- workplace giving and employer matching;
- sponsorships; and
- in-kind donations.

Please visit www.homeaidnova.org/get-involved/ways-to-give for more information.

EXAMPLE:

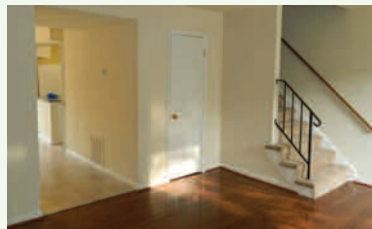

Toll Brothers donated more than 150 new kitchen appliances; HomeAid Northern Virginia then coordinated distribution with Habitat for Humanity's ReStore, with proceeds from the sale benefiting both organizations.

HOMESTRETCH

Three children have rooms decorated just for them at their new home, thanks to interior designer, Carlyn and Company.

NORTHERN VIRGINIA FAMILY SERVICE

A beautifully renovated townhome welcomes a family of four, reunited after nine years apart.

13th Annual Gala Raises Nearly $300,000

An enthusiastic crowd of 425 homebuilders, trade partners and friends of the homebuilding industry raised nearly $300,000 in November at HomeAid Northern Virginia's 13th Annual Gala & Auction, "On the Red Carpet," presented by M&T Bank. The funds, which go toward advancing HomeAid's mission of ending homelessness in Northern Virginia, were raised through event registration, sponsorships, the silent and live auctions, and a $58,000 paddle challenge with a $50,000 match from Doug and Ann Smith.

Applause!

HomeAid was named a 2014 Best of Reston honoree, in the Civic/Community Leader category, by Cornerstones and the Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce. The selection committee was particularly impressed by the generosity of builders and trade partners who worked on HomeAid projects, and for their commitment to affordable housing during an economic downturn in their own business.

Women Giving Back (WBG) Founder Terri Stagi was named one of eight finalists out of more than 700 nominations and received a $25,000 prize from PANDORA Jewelry's Hearts of Today Contest. The funding will go toward furthering WGB's goals in 2015. The honor was reported in Leesburg Today.

Support for WGB at an All-Time High

WGB gained a huge boost in media attention when then Governor-Elect Terry McAuliffe stopped by The Store in January, where volunteers were participating in a day of service by sorting clothing. McAuliffe's visit to WGB was covered in the Washington Post the next day. In July, the Post followed up with a full-length feature story on WGB.
